CEI Names Ed Funaro President

Pittsburgh, PA (December 13, 2018) – Computer Enterprises, Inc. (CEI), a provider of leading-edge consulting, technology and digital solutions, has named Ed Funaro as its President.

Mr. Funaro is a veteran of the consulting industry, with more than 30 years of experience as a Go-to-Market Leader and Business Development Executive. Funaro comes to CEI from GSI Inc., where he was the Senior Vice President of Client Development. His impressive background includes leadership roles at Accenture PLC, Cloud Sherpas LLC, Capgemini US LLC and Computer Science Corporation.

“I am thrilled to be joining the CEI Team,” explains Mr. Funaro. “CEI has a client-centric model that drives value throughout the entire organization. CEI is leading its clients to the forefront of technology, delivering cutting-edge solutions in areas including IoT and Cloud Platforms, Machine Learning, Analytics and AI, DevOps, User Experience Design and Customer Engagement. The breadth of the company’s offerings and services extends across the enterprise, enabling CEI to be a true partner to its clients.”

“As we continue our impressive growth and expansion into additional markets nationwide, Ed’s background and leadership expertise will be a tremendous asset,” said D. Raja, CEI Founding Partner and Chairman. “It is an exciting time for CEI and we look forward to what lies ahead under Ed’s leadership.”

For more than 26 years, CEI has been committed to providing exceptional technology solutions and service to companies in the Mid-Market through the Fortune 1000. Headquartered in Pittsburgh, PA, CEI has regional offices throughout the United States and locations in Asia Pacific, Europe and Latin America.
